

SINGLETON C.E. PRIMARY SCHOOL GETS PRAISE FROM OFSTED

Following a recent Ofsted inspection, Singleton C.E. Primary School was judged as continuing to be a 'good' school that serves its community well.

The inspection took place in May and the report states that the 'the ethos of the school, blending Christian values with the tenets of a Unicef 'Rights Respecting School' shines through'.

The report also acknowledges the school's 'high expectations for all, underpinned by a clear ethos, rooted in mutual respect' and that 'pupils are very well known as individuals by staff, and great care is taken to support both their academic and pastoral development.' The school was also very proud that the children's 'exemplary behaviour' and their 'exceptionally positive attitudes to learning' were recognised. Several parents spoke to the inspector during the inspection and 'were overwhelmingly pleased with the progress made by their children'.

Christopher Todd, Headteacher of the school said: "We are all delighted with the report. We have a fantastic team of skilled and dedicated staff and governors at Singleton who work very hard to create a school of which all can be proud. The report highlighted so many of the school's strengths, shows that the school continues to provide a 'good' standard of education and has usefully identified ways to move the school forward to achieve greater success in the future."
